Partnership with DocuSign Helps Merchants Make Account Changes Digitally for Greater Speed, Efficiency

TEMPE, Ariz.—March 19, 2015—CCBill, a global e-commerce solutions provider, announced it has partnered with DocuSign, Inc. (DocuSign®), The Global Standard for Digital Transaction Management® (DTM), to enable more efficient and smoother account changes for its merchants. DocuSign helps organizations of every size, industry and geography eliminate the hassles, costs, and lack of security inherent in paper-based processes to transact business 100% digitally.

QUOTES

- “DocuSign is The Global Standard for Digital Transaction Management and its e-signature functionality is a welcome addition to our merchant account management toolset,” said Gary Jackson, managing VP of sales and Internet markets for CCBill. “No longer are merchants required to email or fax in updates to their accounts. Instead they can digitally prepare, approve, and sign for any changes in a few simple and secure steps – from anywhere, anytime, on any device.”
- “DocuSign is committed to helping all businesses go 100% digital,” said Glenn Griffin, VP of business development at DocuSign. “Our partnership with CCBill is a great example of how DocuSign is helping companies make the digital transformation to eliminate paper from business for increased efficiency, lower cost, enhanced security and compliance, and a better end user experience.”

With DocuSign, CCBill merchants can quickly, easily and securely update contact information, payout method, ownership changes, account authorizations, and more. To learn how DocuSign can be used on CCBill accounts, contact CCBill Merchant Support at [email protected].
