DocuSign Expands Chicagoland Innovation Hub

2015-07-16

WARRENVILLE, Ill., July 16, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- DocuSign, Inc. (DocuSign®) announced the expansion of its Chicagoland Research & Development Innovation Hub in Warrenville, Illinois. Employees at the new facility will help drive continued innovation across The DocuSign Global Trust Network of more than 100,000 customers and more than 50 million users in 188 countries. As The Global Standard for Digital Transaction Management® (DTM), DocuSign empowers anyone to transact anything, anytime, anywhere, on any device. Securely.

"Chicagoland and Warrenville in particular have become well known for the strength of our talent pool and a long history of powering innovation on a local, regional, national and global scale," said the Honorable David Brummel, Mayor of Warrenville. "We're thrilled to have DocuSign as the global standard for Digital Transaction Management plant roots in Warrenville to tap into the vast technology and development talent resident in Chicagoland."

"The acquisition of Chicago-based Cartavi in 2013 and integration of its transaction rooms within DocuSign's Digital Transaction Management platform have led to fantastic innovations for the real estate industry, and we are seeing exponential growth across The DocuSign Global Trust Network as a result," said Tom Gonser, Founder and Chief Strategy Officer, DocuSign. "Our expansion of the team in Warrenville demonstrates our increased investment in DocuSign for Real Estate in the United States and globally."

DocuSign's Warrenville Innovation Hub includes 5,950 square foot of Class A office space for more than 40 technology professionals, including team huddle spaces, conference rooms, a boardroom, interview space, a cafe and fitness center. The space is decorated with art purchased via www.ipaintmymind.com where revenue from private showings, along with grants and donations, fund free art exhibitions at parks, libraries and community centers.

DocuSign customers, partners, employees and community members will celebrate the opening of the company's Warrenville Innovation Hub later today with a ribbon cutting ceremony led by Mayor David Brummel, representatives from the Western DuPage Chamber of Commerce, and DocuSign Founder and Chief Strategy Officer Tom Gonser, Vice President of Real Estate Product Development Glenn Shimkus, and Vice President of Real Estate Marketing Paul Koziarz.
