CHICAGO—April 13, 2015—The National Association of REALTORS® (NAR), America's largest trade association, and DocuSign, Inc. (DocuSign®), The Global Standard for Digital Transaction Management®, extended their strategic partnership by announcing that DocuSign Professional Edition is now available to International REALTOR® Members at a discounted rate. DocuSign helps REALTORS® close more deals faster with a better client experience by eliminating the hassles, costs and lack of security in printing, faxing, scanning, overnighting and driving around town to complete real estate transactions.

DocuSign Professional enables real estate professionals and brokerages to securely prepare, execute and manage an unlimited amount of custom-branded documents digitally from anywhere, anytime, on any device. With this offering, brokerages and REALTORS® globally can accelerate business, improve security and compliance, and deliver clients a best-in-class buying and selling experience—regardless of where the client is buying or selling property.

Building on DocuSign's announcement last December that the company will open three new data centers in the European Union, DocuSign's new offer to International REALTOR® Members further accelerates the company's worldwide expansion and broadens The DocuSign Global Trust Network. DocuSign serves more than 100,000 customers and more than 50 million users worldwide through offices in Chicago, Dublin, London, New York, Paris, San Francisco, Sao Paulo, Seattle, and Sydney.
